We could do McEwen's. Would be good for you to do the tour with him first and then y'all can head to McEwen's for noon reservations where I can meet you. It occurs to me also that maybe Ben might like to join. In fact that would be good I think.

Bill,

11:30-1 would work great. Do you have a preference for somewhere for lunch? Also, if you've not yet had a chance to see our new place, it would be nice to give you a tour.

Also, as an fyi, Nik Varty will be unavailable then, but I think we could go ahead if ok with you.

Thanks,

Tom

Tom,

Does 11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. Friday work for you ? If so, do you want to do it over lunch somewhere ?

Tom,

We would be delighted to sit down with you (and Nik if he is available) to discuss the role the Crime Commission is performing in crime reduction efforts (as well as the University's role in that).

Just let me know of some convenient dates and times, and we'll go from there.

Good morning Nik! And hello Tom!

I'm copying Bill Gibbons, President of the Crime Commission (also Executive Director of the Public Safety Institute at U of M). Bill would be delighted to provide a special briefing for Tom (or both of you) at your convenience.

As you know, Nik, the Crime Commission plays a unique and crucial role in our community as the only entity that quarterbackes the development and implementation of a multi-strategy crime plan endorsed /owned by all major government and criminal justice leaders, and supported by the business leadership of Memphis Tomorrow.

All the best,

Blair
